PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone! What an exciting time of year that is upon us! Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday, and Christmas is my favorite season, even though I am not a fan of the cold!

I love the extra time we get to spend—and memories we get to make—with family and friends. And, of course, there is all the wonderful food. I hope everyone can find time to be grateful for everything we are blessed with at this special time of year.

With all the many changes our world has gone through over the last century, this Milo Andrus Family Organization has done an amazing job of changing and adjusting and growing with it.

One of the most important adjustments we're trying to make now is being more accessible. Our goal is to have more involvement with the younger generations as well. They have so much to offer! If you have any suggestions or ideas to help make this happen, please share. And if you're willing to help, we would LOVE it! Just send us an email to:

miloandrusfamily@gmail.com.

And now some exciting news: WE WANT EVERYONE to join us this Christmas/holiday season by giving and serving anywhere and in any way you can! Take a picture and post it on whatever social media platform you prefer using the hashtag #miloandrusfam.

MILO ANDRUS FAMILY 2022 REUNION

More than 50 Milo Andrus descendants young and old joined together to socialize and honor the legacy of Milo Andrus and his 11 wives Saturday, June 18, 2022, at Chapel Park in Bountiful, Utah.

MILO ANDRUS FAMILY 2022 REUNION

Despite the wind, we enjoyed a luncheon, 9-square, a photo booth, new shirt and apparel items, and dressing up in vintage hats! The reader's theater, ancestor displays and business meeting rounded out the events.

We would love to see the internet explode with goodness from Milo's many thousands of posterity! I have no doubt you can come up with some amazing ways to serve, but here are a few ideas to get your thoughts going:

Giving Machines—The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has their great machines all over again this year. And there are more than ever before, so there might be some near you. According to a Church report, Giving Machines will be in 28 locations in the United States and five other countries. Through this effort, 125 local and global nonprofits are joining the Church in caring for and serving millions of people in need. For a full list of Giving Machine locations, see <https://www.thechurchnews.com/living-faith/2022/11/3/23438814/light-the-world-giving-machines-2022-expand-mobile>.

Sing Christmas carols to residents of a retirement center or to neighbors who aren't able to get out much.

Donate items to a local homeless shelter. They are always in need! Maybe give them a call to see what they could use most.

Spend time talking to someone who looks lonely. People can feel very lonely in the most crowded places, so keep your eyes open and make someone's day.

Give out candy canes at a local mall or shopping center. Shopping this time of year is often stressful, so a simple act of kindness with a smile can go a long way!

But however you choose to serve, HAVE FUN and don't forget to take pictures and use #miloandrusfam!

Wishing you a Happy Thanksgiving!

Susan Fuller
