

MILO ANDRUS, our great pioneer ancestor

was an ordinary man who sired ordinary people and they all did extraordinary things for our benefit!

I promise this: if you will learn more about the people who share with you a common ancestry, your life will be richer, and more satisfying.

8 July 2005

Dear Friend.

On the date you receive this letter, 150 years ago Milo Andrus was serving as the Stake President of the St. Louis Stake; but he was busy in Mormon Grove, Kansas.* He was organizaing and sending out companies of Saints heading west. Eight companies went northwest out of Mormon Grove across part of Kansas into Nebraska from whence they followed the traditional Mormon Trail to the Salt Lake Valley. Milo, himself, led the eighth company.

This letter aims to help you become better acquainted with and more interested in the family history activities which will make your eternal life more productive.

The reasons for being engaged and interested have been outlined, emphasized, expounded upon, and detailed in other publications. However, I repeat: if you will learn more about the people who share with you a common ancestry, your life will be richer, and more satisfying. Furthermore, if you will learn more about that ancestry, it will significantly add to your eternal joy.

How can you learn more about your ancestry? The Milo Andrus Family Organization will help you.

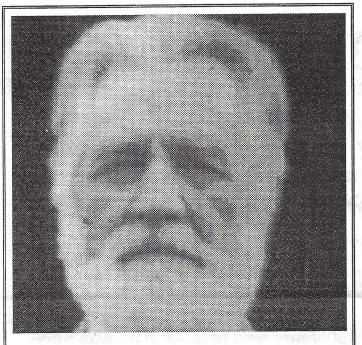

If you will do your part, you can gain the confidence and understanding you need to garner great happiness for yourself.

However, the Organization needs your help. Dues are due. Also, Laura Anderson's ongoing work provides an excellent example why we need you and of how you can help.

This summer Laura will be in the Midwest looking for clues about the Ruluf Andrus Family in Kansas, Iowa, Illinois and Missouri. Not being abundantly blessed with funds, she will be camping some of the time. She is spending her time and her money to do our work.

CAN ANY OF YOU DIRECT US TO SOURCES OF FUNDS, LARGE AND SMALL, SO THAT WE CAN TRULY PAY THE EXPENSES INVOLVED IN DOING THE RESEARCH IN WHICH WE ALL WILL DO WELL TO TAKE AN INTEREST??

*The Milo Andrus Family Organization will participate in a commemoration of the Mormon Grove activity in Atchison, Kansas on 23 July 2005—see page 2 of this Newsletter for details.

Is this Milo Andrus?

Well, no. This is a picture of Dolph Andrus taken in about 1959. Dolph was the son of Randolph Andrus, the youngest child of Milo Andrus and Adeline Alexander. About the time this picture was taken Dolph thought of presenting a speech like one that Milo gave in St. George on 28 June 1874 where he talked about the journey of Zion's Camp of 1834. Dolph wanted to imitate the speaking style that Milo was reported to have had, and he grew a Milo-like beard.

Berwyn Andrus, the son of Dolph recently read through the speech as it appeared in one of his father's journals. He did this reading at the meeting of the Milo Andrus Family Organization held on Saturday, 26 June 2005.

The members of the Board were careful to give instructions that we shouldn't print Dolph's speech in this Newsletter, lest some future reader might think it was the historical speech that Milo gave.

Commemoration in Atchison, Kansas

On Saturday, 23 July 2005 in the city of Atchison, the Topeka Kansas Stake and the Platte City Misscuri Stake will commemorate the temporary camp-city known as Mormon Grove, located 4 miles west of Atchison. A few hundred youth from these two stakes will participate in a number of activities including a program that begins at 9 a.m.

This program will be held in the O'Malley-McAllister Auditorium of the Benedictine College at 1020 North Second Street in Atchison. To get driving directions go to http://www.benedictine.edu

A bearded member of the Milo Andrus Family will show up as Milo Andrus. He will introduce Robert Andrus, Kendall Andrus and Rich Andrus who will sing on the program.

Don Andrus, present Secretary-Treasurer and past President of the Milo Andrus Family Organization along with his brother, Kay Andrus of Omaha, will set up a table display. This display will feature a number of items reminding people of the pioneers who left Mormon Grove in 1855 on their way to the Valley of the Great Salt Lake.

As stated before, Milo Andrus was the St. Louis Stake President with responsibility for the activities at Mormon Grove. Three of Milo's future wives, Elizabeth Brooks, Ann Brooks and Jane Munday were involved with this migration.

The actual sites associated with Mormon Grove are today private fields. The owners are not anxious for people to be tramping down their crops! If you go to Kansas this July or at any other time, please stay outside the boundaries of private property.

Commemoration in St. Louis, Missouri

To commemorate Milo Andrus and the Saints' contributions in St. Louis in the 1850s, The St. Louis Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has forged a partnership with the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial - St. Louis Gateway Arch - to tell our pioneer story more widely to the public, of which you are a part when you visit the Arch.

This is not a one day commemoration, but an ongoing effort in the Arch's Museum of Westward Expansion, located directly below the Arch. Volunteer members of the Church, in pioneer dress, will work as "interpreters" to tell the story of the Saints who came through St. Louis as well as Mormon Trail pioneers. Over 4.5 million visitors come each year to the Arch in St. Louis—the second most visited monument in the USA.

A visit to the St. Louis Gateway Arch is a great experience in itself. You may also want to visit the Winter Quarters Visitor's Center near Omaha, Nebraska if you are travelling in that general direction. Between the two, you will get an excellent understanding of the effort it took to make our nation and our Latter-day society.

Board of Directors

You can see a list of the Milo Andrus Family Organization's Board on page 4 of this Newsletter. You will do well to make the acquaintance of the representative of the wife from whom you descend. You may even be able to help him or her.

Each wife-line is expected organize so that they can perform certain projects particular to that branch of the family. In addition to searching for the ancestry of Milo's parents, Ruluf and Azuba, the Milo Andrus Family Organization should be interested in the ancestry of each of Milo's eleven wives. As a matter of fact, we expect the wife-line representatives to have an ongoing program so that they can report on the following at our Board meetings.

- a. Prospects for getting an organized effort in wife ancestry research
- b. Prospects for getting an organized effort in wife descendancy research.
- c. Prospects for giving help in the Milo ancestry research.
- d. Prospects for getting additional contributions for Milo ancestry research.
- e. Prospects for getting additions to the mailing list.

You might ask, "What is the Milo Andrus Family Organization doing?"

During the past 50 years a substantial amount has been done, but the future can be even more productive. Each person who receives this letter can help in ways outlined in the 5 points listed above and expanded on in the next column.
